WHAT'S BEHIND SOMA?

SOMA Collective stands as a testament to the boundless power of art to transcend borders, unite diverse cultures, and connect people through a shared creative experience. Our collective mission is to bridge the realms of the physical and the digital, weaving together a tapestry of artistic expression that blurs traditional boundaries. Our passion lies in creating exhibitions worldwide that blend physical and digital artworks, crafting truly unique events that resonate across the globe.

In a world where the boundaries between the tangible and the virtual continue to blur, SOMA Collective embraces this transformation as an opportunity for exploration. We believe that the fusion of the physical and the digital is not a mere convergence of mediums; it is the birth of a new dimension of artistic expression.

Our exhibitions, which showcase a harmonious marriage of diverse mediums, invite audiences to explore the intersections of these worlds. Through each physical artwork, visitors can feel the tangible presence of the artist's hand, while digital creations challenge the limits of the possible.

As we embark on this global journey, we aim to offer audiences a unique experience that transcends geographic borders. By presenting our exhibitions worldwide, we enable people from diverse cultures to immerse themselves in the profound beauty and thought-provoking nature of our collective's creations. We believe that art is a universal language, and through our exhibitions, we seek to foster a global dialogue, encouraging the exchange of ideas and perspectives.

With every physical and digital artwork we share, we aim to connect people on a deeper level, to engage in a global conversation about the evolving role of art in the 21st century. Our desire is to break down barriers, to unite people across continents and backgrounds, and to inspire a new generation of artists and art enthusiasts who understand that art has the power to transcend boundaries and create a more interconnected world.

As SOMA Collective continues to push the boundaries of what is possible in the intersection of physical and digital art, we invite you to join us on this global artistic journey. Together, we can build a world where creativity knows no bounds, and where art serves as a bridge that unites us all.

THE ARTISTS

POLYGON1993
THE GLITCHER

POLYGON1993, a renowned visual artist, merges imperfection and analog technology to bridge past and future in a unique way. POLYGON1993

When imperfection acts as a driving force for art and analog technology stands alongside digital evolution, the past, present, and future are one! POLYGON1993 brings us into a glitch universe that represents his daily life : a distorted world where reality and imagination mingle.

POLYGON1993 is a visual artist, film director and media scenographer who has made a name for himself in the world of Glitch Art. His distinct style involves using old circuit bent video gear from the 80s and 90s to create glitchy distorted lines that come together to form portraits. His art is both nostalgic and innovative, blending old technology with creative ideas to create something truly original. His clients include prestigious artists and brands such as A$AP Rocky, Tame Impala, Charli XCX, Pantone, Sony Music, Warner Music and more.

POLYGON1993's work has been exhibited all around the world in many countries such as the USA, Japan, France, UK, Portugal, Italy, South Korea,... and has garnered attention from art enthusiasts and collectors around the world. He continues to explore the possibilities of glitch art and circuit-bending, and is constantly pushing the boundaries of what is possible with his medium.

LOUIS DAZY

Louis Dazy is a conceptual photographer and visual artist based in Paris, France. His approach combines portraiture, street photography and light work to create highly evocative, cinematic images. Dazy brings layered meaning to his images through the process of double exposure on film and digital collage. His images are created out of velvety darkness, glowing neon and starry sparks of light, carrying all the potency of a dream or a still from a movie. He takes an intuitive approach to convey feelings of nostalgia and melancholy with many of his works capturing outward glamour alongside private contemplation.

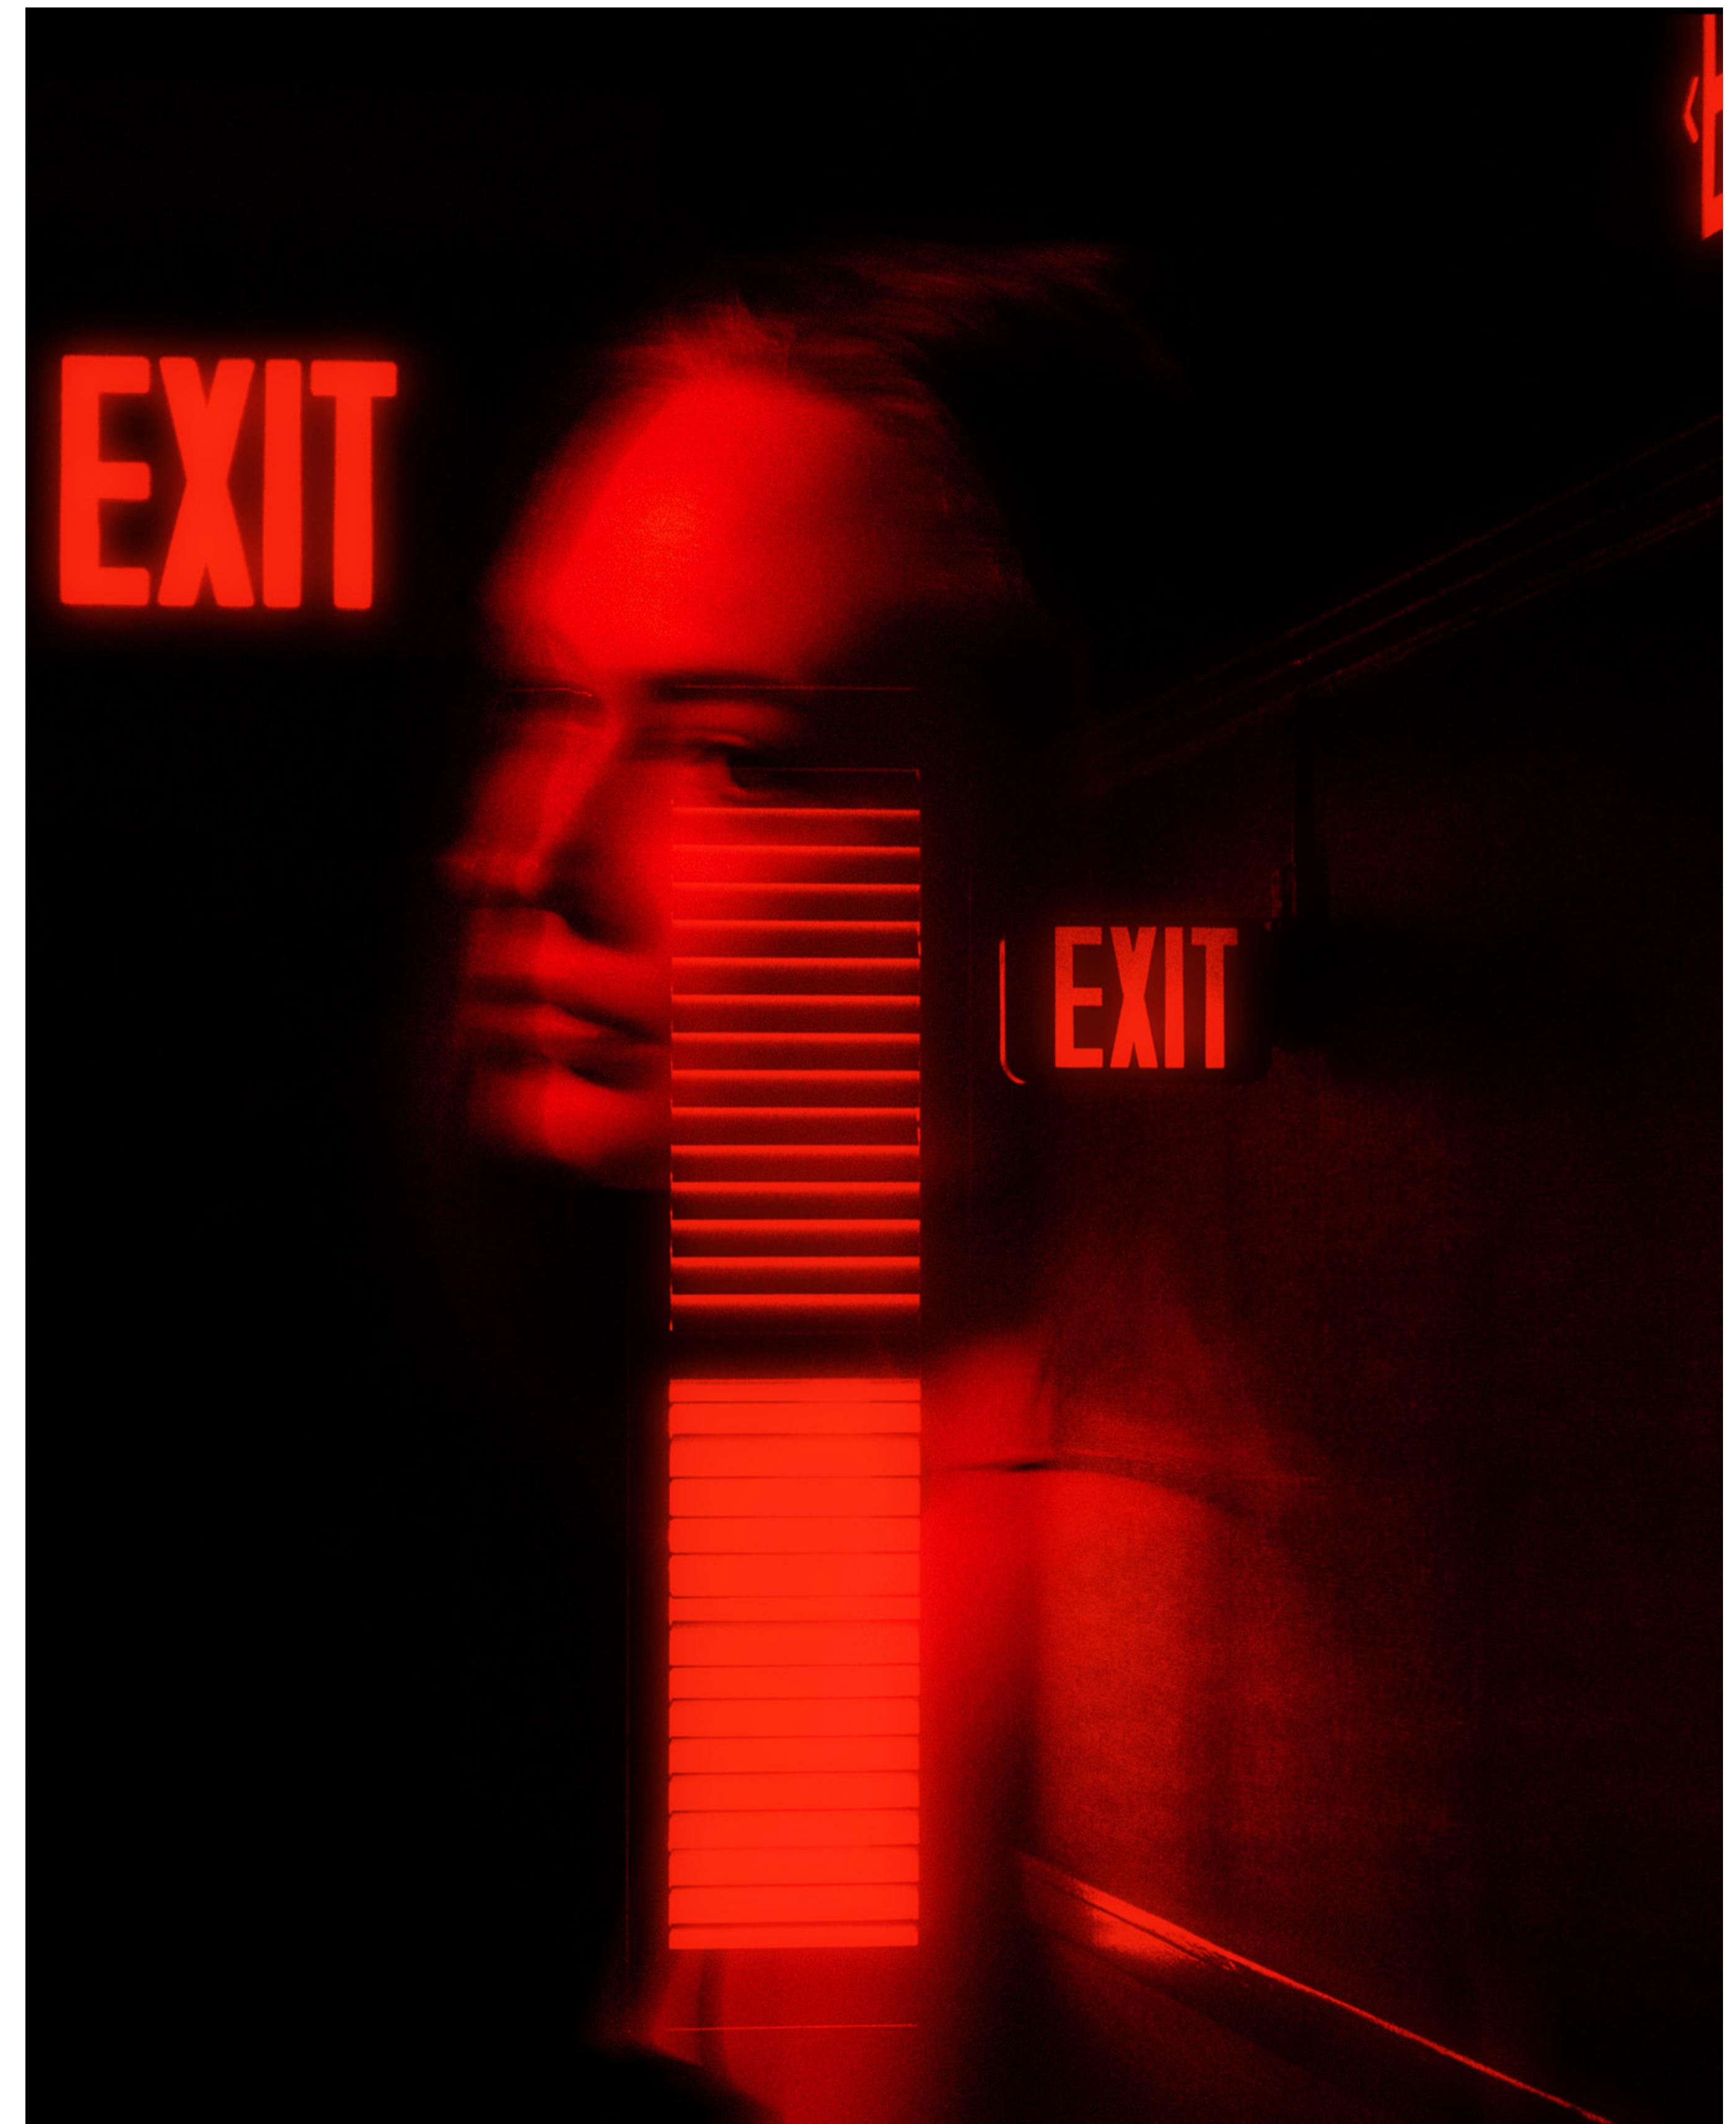

Each image creates a poignant moment that implies deep emotion and ongoing action, as such his work is closely aligned with imagery we are more familiar with from music videos and Film Noir. He also incorporates text, often in the form of neon sign writing, adding an additional layer of meaning, creating plot points through the confluence of the imagery, color and words. Overall Dazy's work carries us through a heady timeless flow which epitomizes the glamour of the 1950s, the sexuality of the 1970s and the high pressure of the 1980s, blending French film styling with illuminated Asian super cities and American diner aesthetics.

OELHAN

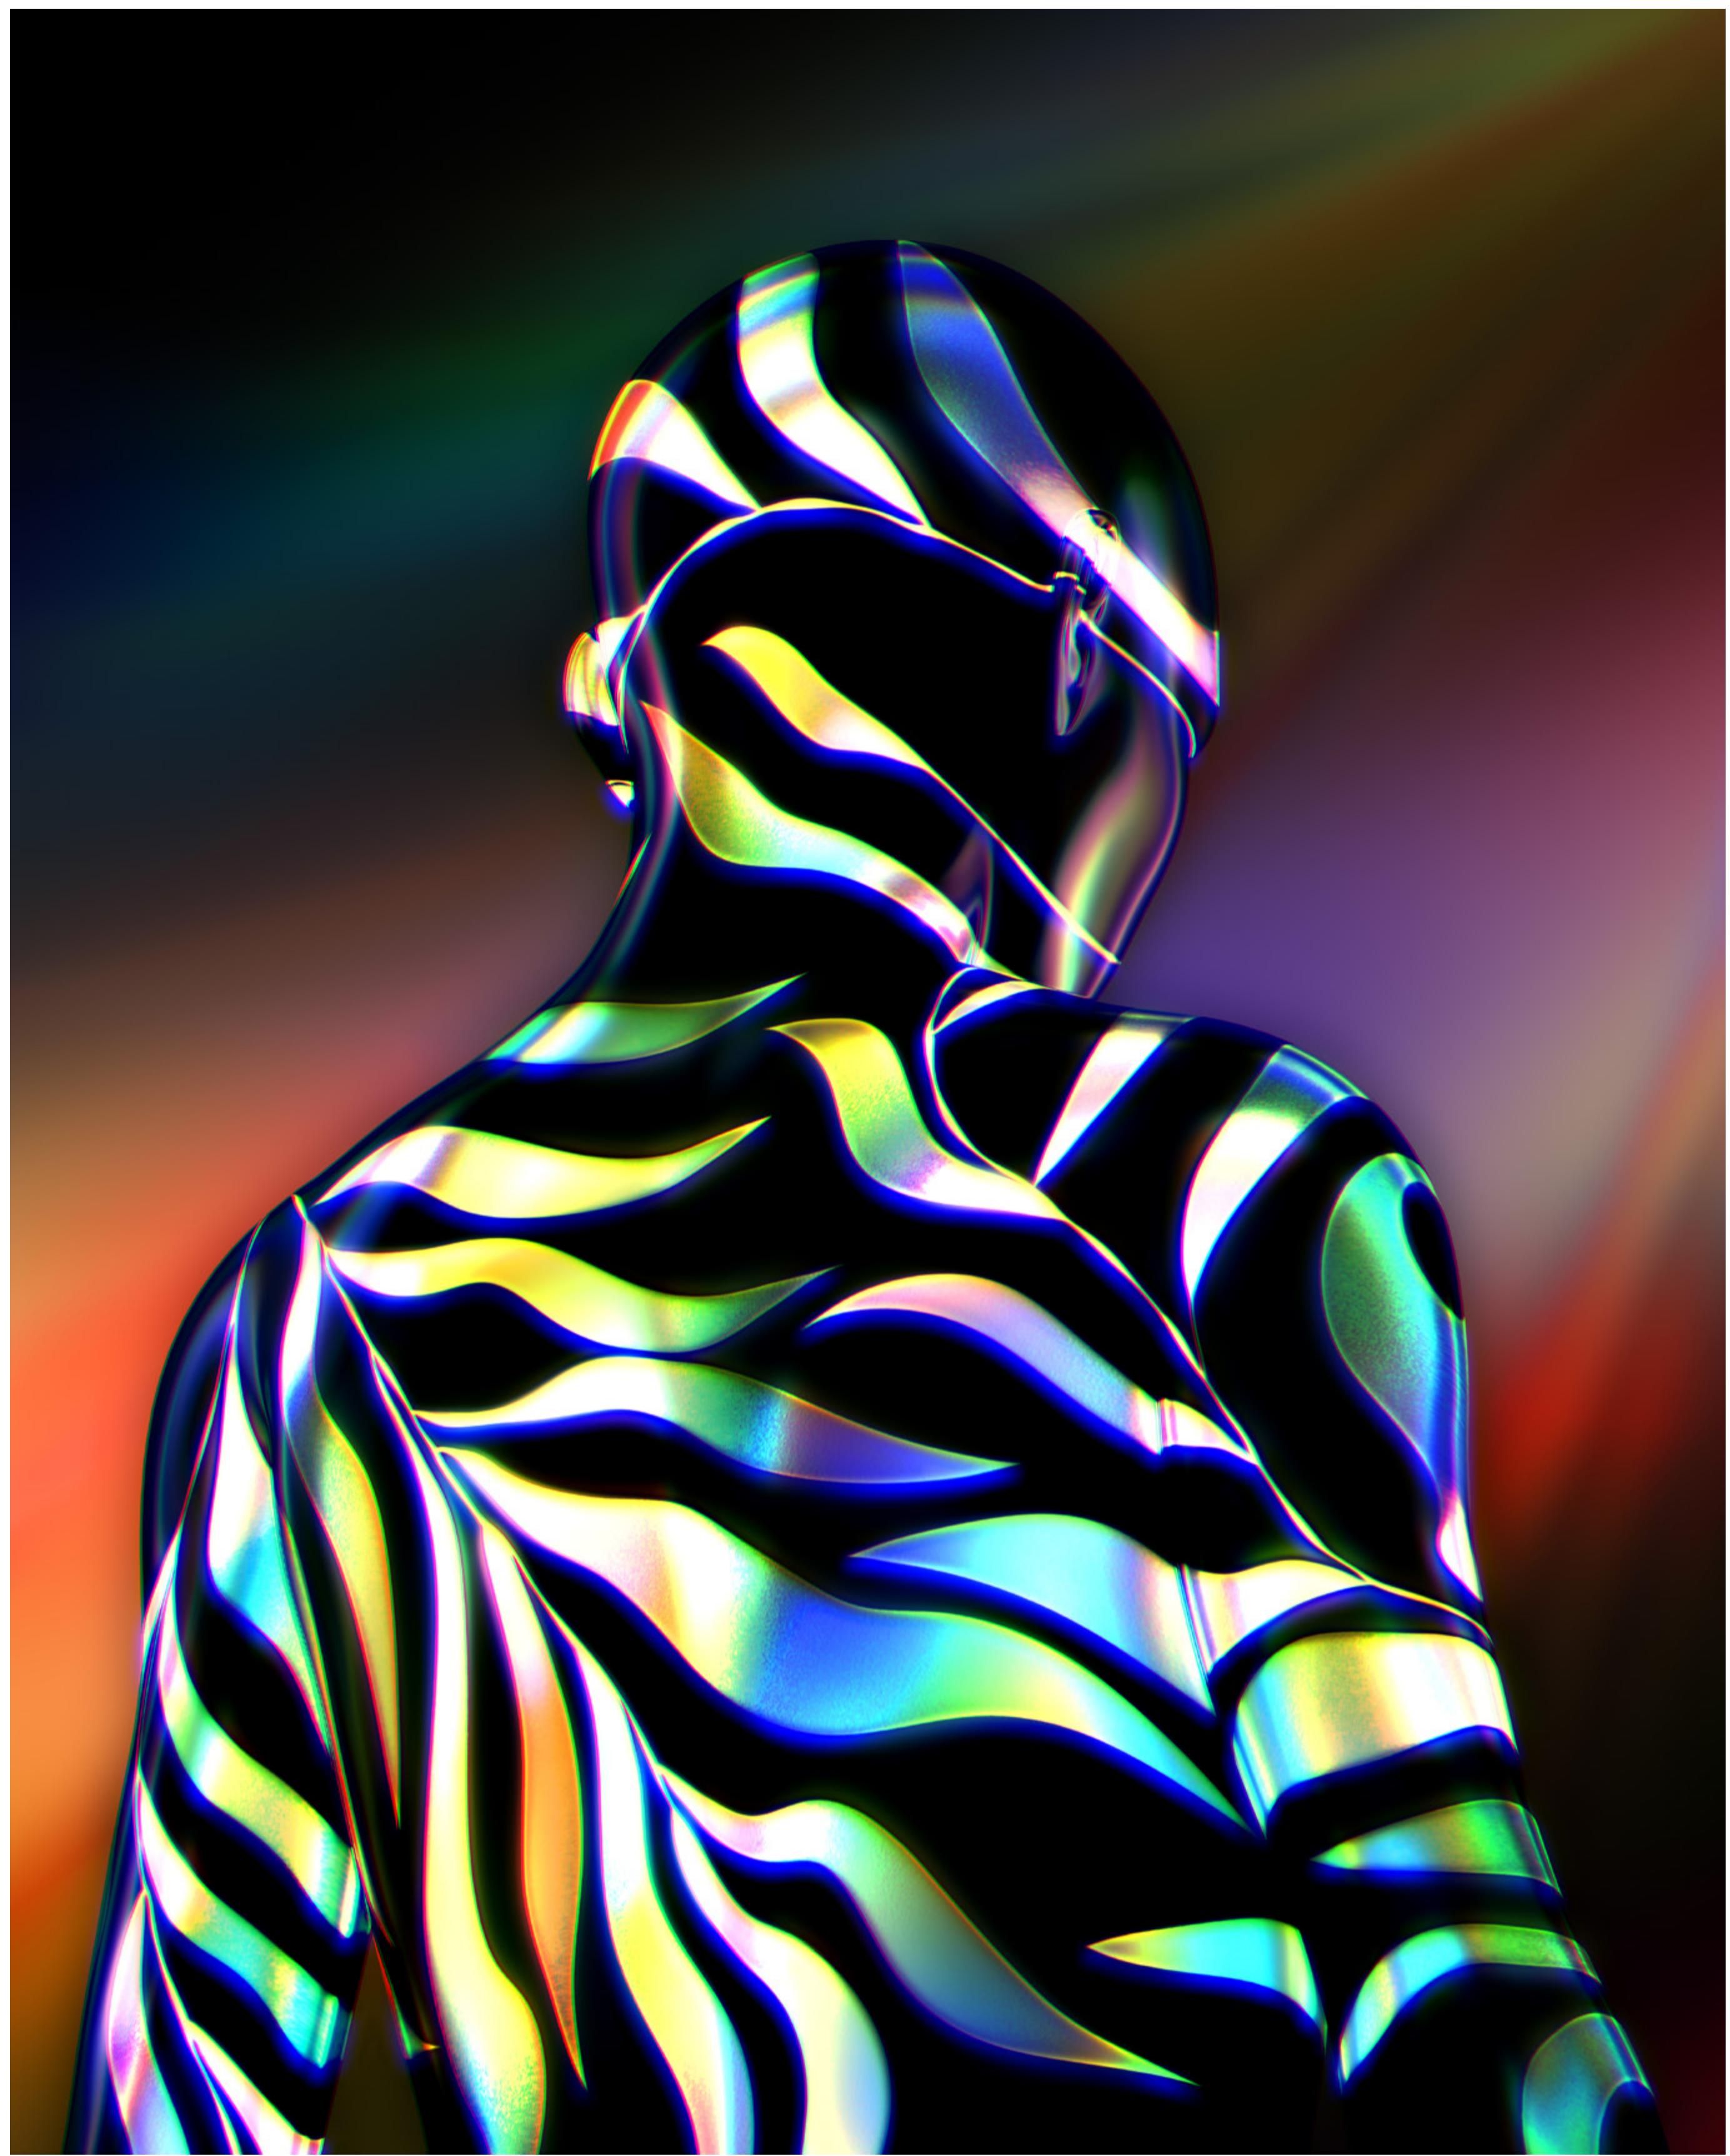

When emotions and sensations merge into an animated whirlwind at the boundaries of the human mind...

Oelhan, a established animator based in Paris, embodies this fusion. His creations skillfully blend 3D elements, contrasting color schemes, and striking visual treatments. His work is a profound exploration of the nuances of human emotions. Specifically, Oelhan delves into conflicting feelings and suppressed passions within us. Through his short animations, he manages to capture this captivating complexity with a playful touch.

Among his clients are prestigious brands such as Apple, Adobe, and Spotify. His works, some of which are presented in the form of lenticular prints, have traveled across Europe to renowned animation exhibitions and festivals like Pictoplasma Berlin and Motion Motion. Lately, his focus has been on translating his animated concepts into physical mediums.

LUKAS

Lukas was born in 1989 in Abidjan, Ivory Coast where he spent his childhood. He then followed his parents to Indonesia where he grew up, finishing high school in Jakarta before moving to France.

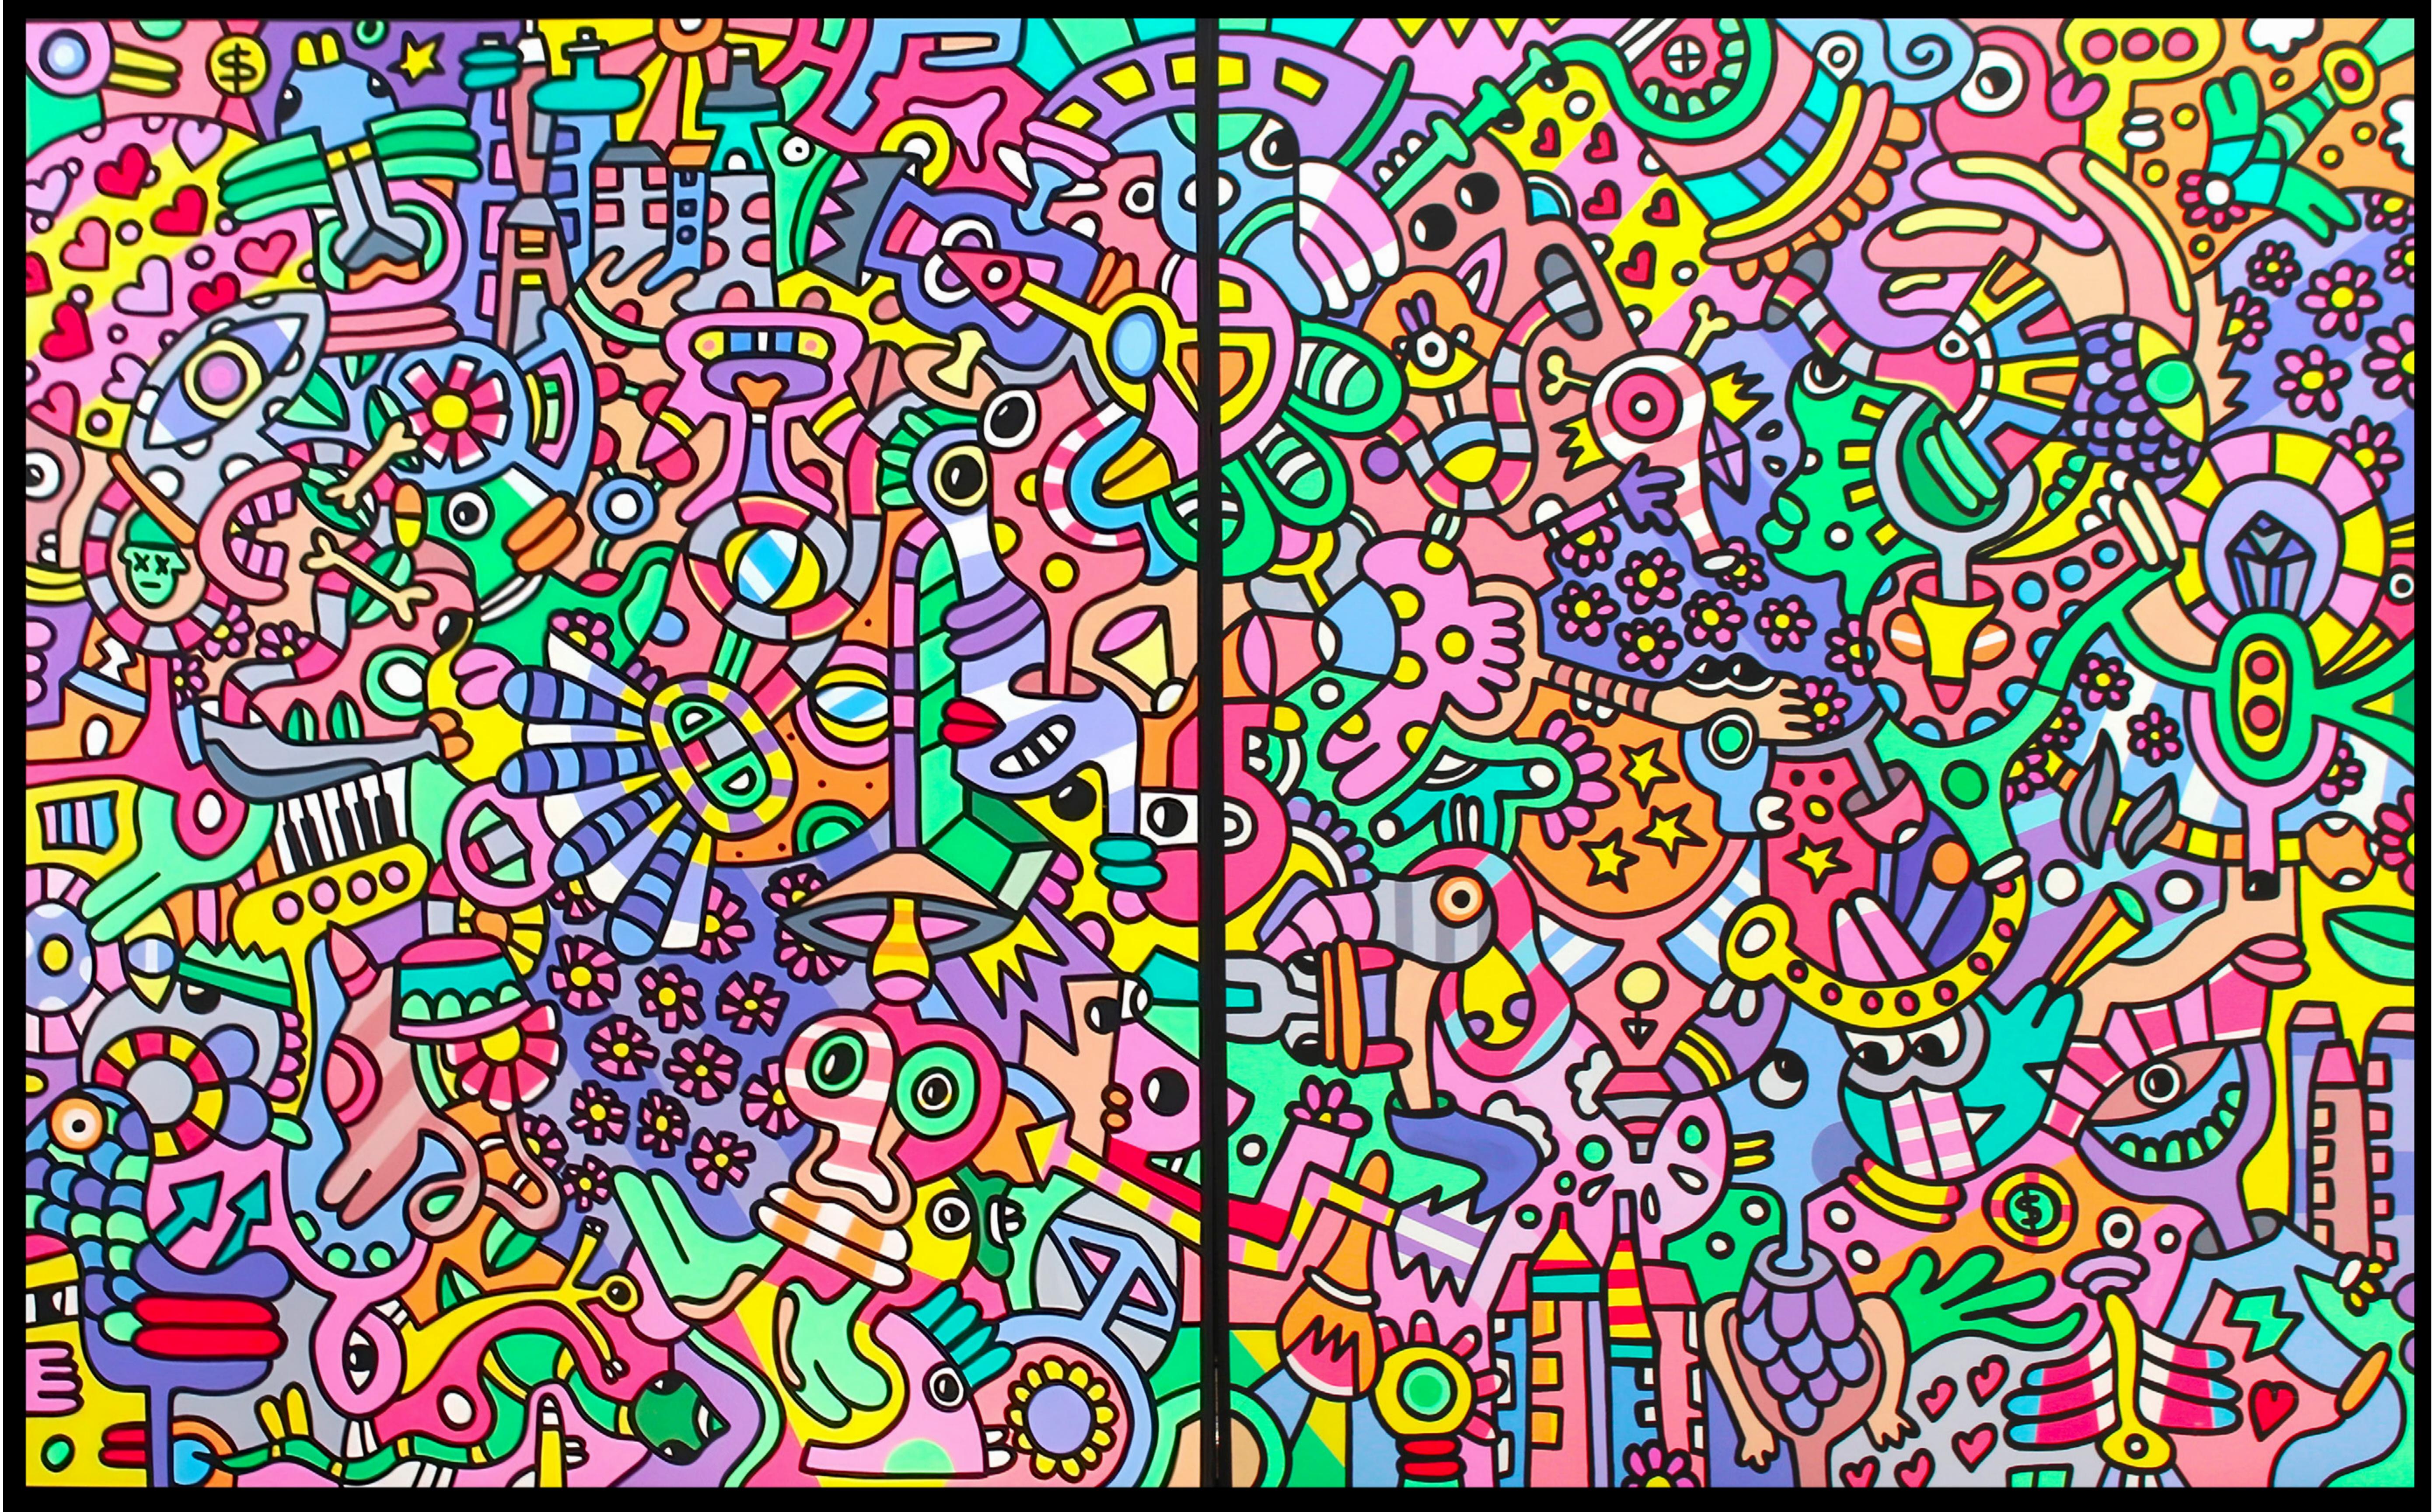

After graduating from a film school and then from a sound design school in Nantes and Montpellier, he discovered painting at the end of his studies, in parallel with his first passion, music. These two mediums allowed him to externalize and share, in his own way, his history, his sensitivity and his visions. Discovering himself as a synesthete, Lukas uses colors as a language, allowing him to spread his energy. Established in Paris since 2013, Lukas does not stop painting and presents his works during numerous exhibitions and fairs in Paris and internationally. Thanks to a community of buyers and collectors, he improves, seeks, discovers, asserts and learns.

In 2016, he joined the prestigious Emaux de Longwy factory as an artist designer. A studio artist but still driven by the desire to deconstruct certain preconceived notions about art, he has been discreetly intervening since 2017 every summer on the Pont des Arts where he exhibits his works. It is also here that he met a curator of one of the largest platforms of NFT sales, and it is in 2021 that he joins the international selection of artists on SuperRare.com.

Currently working on new projects and collaborations, notably in Paris and Japan, 2023 will mark the end of a cycle and, like the stages of his various trips around the world, Paris becomes a «stopover» before a new great journey to Reunion Island...

LIGHTON

Meet Lighton, a Paris-based artist whose creative journey spans across a diverse range of mediums, from illustration and painting to animation and occasional forays into sculpture. With a professional background rooted in the world of advertising, his work bears the imprints of this unique experience. Years spent witnessing his work torn and replaced in the advertising frames of the metro led to a profound metaphorical connection between the fragments of torn posters and the passage of time itself. These tear marks have since become a recurring motif in his creations.

One distinctive hallmark of Lighton's style is the portrayal of characters with a distinct blue skin tone. This choice transcends ethnic origins, allowing him to present humanity in its entirety, uniting people under a common visual language. Drawing inspiration from both pop art and urban art, his creations are an amalgamation of various influences and styles, adapting dynamically to the themes at hand.

THE SOMA EXPERIENCE

THE CONCEPT

At SOMA, our vision revolves around rekindling the connection between digital and physical art, which has waned over time. What truly matters in this pursuit is the art itself.

Our approach is simple yet profound. We partner with galleries to transform their spaces into immersive exhibitions and experiences, harmoniously blending digital and physical art. This fusion of the digital and physical, often referred to as «phygital,» serves as a potent means to engage a broader audience and catalyze a creative synergy.

Traditional artworks coexist seamlessly with digital creations, each enhancing the other in an extraordinary interplay. The result is a unique, ever-evolving artistic fusion that resonates with both seasoned art enthusiasts and newcomers alike.

SOMA extends beyond mere art exhibitions; we meticulously curate and craft each showcase to provide a distinct, immersive experience. Collaborating closely with our partners, we co-create unique concepts that resonate deeply with the audience.

In our world, art transcends boundaries. It is not confined to a canvas or a screen; it serves as a bridge that connects the past and future, the tangible and the virtual.
